	Juan Antonio Garcia-Luna	Case No	CR-V-06-002M
In a	accordance with the Bail Reform A	act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a d	etention hearing ha	s been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.
Part I—Findings of Fact
(1)	1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is [] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
	an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
	an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C.
	§ 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
(3)	3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the \(\square\) date of conviction \(\square\) release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
(4)	Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
	Alternative Findings (A)
[] (I)	(1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
(2)	(2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assured the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
□ (1)	Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
	There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a prepon-

The		t III—Directions Regarding De		in a corrections facility senerate
	The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonab	ble opportunity for private consultation with o	defense counsel on order of a cour	t of the United States or o	on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
